

2009

38th Festival of the Arts Exhibitors

CERAMICS

 THE STUDIO GALLERY
BOOTH # 41
Doug Blum

Wheel thrown and sculpted
stoneware and porcelain

HONG-YI GOA and MICHELLE CHANG
BOOTH # 33

Hand-painted ceramic art using Chinese traditional brush, painted on a slab of clay, frit glaze, firing in a special made kiln

HATCHVILLE POTTERY
BOOTH # 77
Hollis L. Engley

Reduction-fired functional pots, influenced by British and Asian Pottery

EVANGALISTA CERAMICS

BOOTH# 21

Laura Evangelista

Functional, decorative hand-painted earthenware in fruit, veggie and floral motifs

HOWARD POTTERY

BOOTH # 44

Denny Howard

Hand made reduction fired porcelain and stoneware pottery

LESUEUR CLAY WORK

BOOTH# 86

Kathleen LeSueur

Decorative and functional, Cone 10 reduction fired stoneware

REMSEN STUDIOS

BOOTH # 83

Michael Remsen

Michael mixes all his own clay, glazes and chemicals so he will know exactly what will happen to the piece when it's fired in the kiln.

TOUCHSTONE POTTERY

BOOTH # 111

Jim Schneider & Marilyn Chattin

High-fire stoneware home and garden accessories
Wheel-thrown and hand-built

SUSAN WECHSLER

DESIGNS

BOOTH # 57

Susan Kay Wechsler

Hand-built stoneware woven baskets, platters, bowls and wine coolers.

BARNHILL POTTERY

BOOTH # 65

Susan Dimm Williams

Every piece is made out of high fire stoneware clay
for durability and is ovenproof, dishwasher, microwave safe and lead free.