JUDGE

We are fortunate to have Greg Crisci as the judge for our contest this year. Greg has lectured and judged photographic exhibitions throughout New England for many years. He is former President of the Boston Camera Club as well as the prestigious Massachusetts Camera Naturalists. He has presented programs at the New England Camera Club Seminars at U. Mass - Amherst, an event attended by more than 1200 photographers. Greg has received many local, national and international awards. His photos are regularly published in calendars and National Magazines.

About The Cape Cod Viewfinders Camera Club:

The Cape Cod Viewfinders Camera Club is a photographic group based in Harwich dedicated to learning, teaching and promoting the art of photography. The club meets on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month from September to June in the Brooks Free Library at 739 Main St. Harwich. The club hosts guest speakers, field trips, club and interclub competitions. Membership is open to anyone interested in photography.
